HOMICIDE

On Tuesday, September 4, 1979, Alice Eskew was last seen at home in the 3100 block of Arctic Avenue. She left her home walking towards Laskin Road just before dusk. A missing persons report was filed with the police after she failed to return home that evening. Her body was found on Thursday, September 6, 1979 at approximately 5 pm in the densely wooded area of Seashore State Park just off Shore Drive, close to the bypass. Ms. Eskew was transported to the Medical Examiner's Office for autopsy, where it was determined that she died as a result of blunt force trauma.

Alice was 18 years old, very petite white female who was 5' 1" tall and weighed 80 pounds. She had long blonde hair, dark eyes and a vibrant smile.
