HOMICIDE

On Tuesday, August 14, 1990, three armed black males forced their way into David Lamb's townhouse located in the 1100 block of Hillock Crescent, in the Wesleyan Chase area of the city. At 2:30 am, Police were summoned to the Lamb residence after a report of gunfire. The 20 year old victim was found inside his residence suffering from a gunshot wound to the head.

Investigators interviewed numerous neighbors and determined that Lamb had lived at the townhouse less than a year. During that time, the atmosphere surrounding his home was annoying, with people coming and going at all hours of the day and night, loud music and fast cars driven to and from the residence.

Police are looking for a black male, about 20 years old, light complexion, approximately 5' 6", 140 lbs, with a thin mustache and freckles. He wore a white baseball cap and white shirt. The other two men were also black, but no other descriptions are available.

David was a 20 year old black male who had brown eyes and short black hair, a slight beard and moustache. He was 6' tall weighing 190 pounds.
