HOMICIDE

On Friday, March 31, 1978 at approximately 1 am, Frank Pepper was found in his home suffering from wounds responsible for his death. He had last been seen alive by his family in their home in the 3700 block of South Plaza Trail a few hours prior to his death. Mr. Pepper's body was transported to the Medical Examiner's Office for autopsy. Investigators have not been able to determine a motive for the murder of Frank Carl Pepper.

Mr. Pepper was a 32 year old black male who was 6' 4" tall, 171 pounds, thin build with brown eyes, black hair and a full beard. He was active duty with the U.S. Navy.
